

S'Wonderful

A rendition of the George Gershwin classic written and performed by Lynda Williams for USPAS, 1997

S'wonderful, s'marvelous
Supersymmetry!
S'awful nice, S'paradise Supergravity!

Is this the Theory of Everything
I feel pulling on my super-heart-strings?
S'wonderful, s'marvelous
Supersymmetry!

S'awfully sad, S'could of had our own SSC!
S'quantum dream, squandered it.
Bad publicity.

But where did the funding go?
Must be hiding with the higgsinos!
S'wonderful, S'marvelous,
there's still the LHC!

S'wonderful, s'marvelous,
superpartnering.
S'what it takes: s'particles for symmetry breaking.

Is this the Theory of Everything
I feel pulling on my super-duper-heart-strings?

S'wonderful, s'marvelous,
the neutralinos and gravitinos of Supersymmetry!
